

The Law Firm of
Cummings, McClorey, Davis & Acho, P.L.C. invites you to attend an educational seminar on

Why Families Feud in Probate Court and How to Prevent the Mayhem

Attorney Gene Richards draws on his years of experience to highlight the common causes of family fights in probate court and practical ways to keep the peace in your family. He will explain how probate works, how to navigate the process when there are no other options, and the legal tools you need to succeed.

— Come with questions. Leave with answers. —

- What is probate?
- Are there steps I can take to avoid probate?
- Doesn't my will keep me out of probate?
- Will the state take a big chunk of my estate?
- What can I do to prevent my family from feuding after I'm gone?
- How do probate judges deal with feuding families?
- Is it necessary to have an attorney?
- What happens if I don't have a will?
- When is a guardianship or conservatorship needed?
- Can the probate court help me with Medicaid planning?

Wednesday, October 30th

6:30-8:30 p.m.

Novi Civic Center

45175 Ten Mile Road - Novi, Michigan 48375

There is no charge to attend the seminar.

Space is limited. Kindly RSVP by October 29th to Dorene Mitchell at (734) 261-2400 or dmitchell@cmda-law.com.

CUMMINGS • MCCLOREY
C M D A
DAVIS & ACHO, P.L.C.
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW

17436 College Parkway | Livonia, MI 48152
T: (734) 261-2400 | E: nrichards@cmda-law.com
Blog: cmdaelderlaw.com | www.cmda-law.com